

Deep Creek WOW Workin' On the Watershed Event

Brought to you by Broadwater Conservation District
and its key partners

- ▶ AUGUST 21ST
- ▶ 3:00 PM TO 8:00 PM
- ▶ FREE
- ▶ FIELD TOUR
EVENT & DINNER AT MONTANA ELK COMPANY

In celebration of Montana Conservation Month the Broadwater Conservation District is teaming up with NRCS, FWP, County Weed Dept., County Floodplain Coordinator and the Deep Creek Land-owner Advisory Group to bring a unique event to the residents of the Deep Creek watershed and all interested parties.

This event is meant to show our appreciation for YOU, and provide a fun and educational means of bringing folks together to show how their continued support and involvement will play a positive role in the restoration of the Deep Creek watershed.

August 21st Schedule:

3:00 to 4:00 pm—Deep Creek Watershed Tours

Meet Ron Spoon (FWP) at the Broadwater CD at 3:00 to begin a tour of different water and streamside projects along the watershed, gaining additional insight into past and future restoration efforts. Final stop will be at the bridge on Clopton Ln.*

4:00 to 6:00 p.m.—Educational Sessions

Join us at Montana Elk Company (60 Clopton Lane)*

- Stream Monitoring and Watershed Health—Alli Bratton & crew—BSWC
- Weed Management for a Healthy Watershed —Playing an active roll. Educational Presentations & SW Ed. Weed Trailer: State Bio-Control Coordinator (Melissa Maggio-Kessner), State Ed. Coordinator (Shantell Frame-Martin) & County Weed Coordinator (Scott Dunning)
- Soil Health's Connection to a Healthy Watershed – Introduction through Rain Simulation—Kristen Fletcher—NRCS
- Floodplain Management Strategies & Broadwater County's FEMA Project—Q & A with local Floodplain Coordinator, Shawn Higley
- Small Acreage Equine Management—John & Laura Ascheman
- Restoration Game Plan and Management Strategies—NRCS

6:00 to 8:00 pm—Montana Elk Company Tour, Dinner and Fun with Presentation by Rancher, Randy Mannix: A Success Story—The Blackfoot Challenge

Tour Lew and Linda Reeves spectacular Elk Farm, enjoy a wonderful dinner provided by Gayle Watson and listen to rancher, Randy Mannix, share The Blackfoot Challenge: A Success Story.*

Registration
Deadline: August
15th

*Please pre-register by contacting the
Broadwater CD*

For more information contact:

Broadwater CD
415 South Front Street
Townsend, MT 59644

Phone: 406-266-3146 x 104

Fax: 855-510-7025

E-mail:

Denise.Thompson@mt.nacdnet.net

Montana Fish,
Wildlife & Parks

